Boys to Men after raising funds through fundraisers was able to sponsor mentorship trainings for young men in 5 different regions of the country. These programs targeted at-risk young teenage boys who may come from broken homes or other at-risk situations and provide a place for them to belong and be mentored by an adult male, as if the boy had a big brother or father image to help encourage him to accomplish more in his life and raise his self-esteem. This ultimately provides a sense of belonging and self-worth.
