MENTORING

BOYS TO MEN

In 1996, Boys to Men began when co-founders Joe Sigurdson and Craig McClain realized that boys in their neighborhood were seeking to connect with positive adult male role models regularly. Craig and Joe discovered the vital need for male mentors for boys who have no father or mentor in their lives and sought to be heard, cared for, loved, validated, and find hope. In San Diego today, 49,937 boys are growing up in fatherless homes. Approximately 52% of the boys we serve are growing up without a father or a mentor at home.

OUR MISSION

Our mission, at Boys to Men Mentoring, is to build communities of male role models who, through consistent group mentoring, encourage and empower teenage boys to follow their dreams.
